

d. Requirements of God 10

e. Things to Come:

(1) Of Himself

(2) Of the world in general

6. Concepts for Observatio:

a. The Lord's Teaching is relevant but not simplistic

b. The Lord's teaching is eminently pragmatic

c. The Lord's teaching is interspersed with time to think and put it into action.

7. Concluding Observation:

The Lord is the great Master-Teacher. While we may not all have the technical gifts of teaching, we all have teaching assignments in connexion with our life and witness. It is obvious that we may all profit from His teaching manner and from a careful notice of His method and content of communication.

1: 27-28

C. The Ministry of Administration (1:25)

1. The Idea: we have in mind the way in which the Lord shows His authority over the forces of nature, spirit, and mankind.

His authority is seen over three major areas:

a. the world forces (demons, etc.)

b. His kingdom --His rule over His own.

c. His work--the particular manner in which the Lord accomplishes the redemptive program

2. Some passages...arranged after the threefold heading above.

a. over the world forces
