

require a great deal of education to see the point of this vision in a hurry. Everything is ready. The whole world is at rest. You haven't had any decree from the King of Persia that says don't build the temple. There hasn't been an army come and stop you. Everything is ready. The whole world is at rest. It's my will that the temple be built. I am displeased with those who do not do my will. I am returned to Jerusalem. What should you do? Build the temple. Now what Zechariah is saying for his day is this, that here is God's will, and the time is ripe to act upon it. God has put everything in order, God has taken care of all that you need, act on it now. Now how does this relate down to my day? How does it relate, well, I'm not building a temple, you see. I'm not even building anything other than a spiritual church. I'm not even building a physical church. Not yet, at any rate. I'm not doing any of these things. How, then, will this relate to me?

God's will for any given act is the necessary thing for your life. The temple be built. Souls be won. The church be established. The missionaries go forth. God's will as is expressed by His Word is the important thing for your life. God knows all the problems that you face. He has messengers throughout the earth. All the earth is still before you when it is God's will to act. Then, why don't you act? And he says, what's more, he says, I'm displeased with the lazy people. Well, if any of you were pastors' wives and you had a church building program and the ladies in the church don't know whether to cooperate with it or not, here's a point in hand. Now I don't know whether they should cooperate with it or not, I don't tell anybody what to do in their local church,
