

deliverance which God has for all those who will trust in Him, and the wonderful way He will care for His own in spite of the fact that there are enemies outside and in spite of the fact that there are enemies inside. Now, I am a nervous type of a fellow and jittery, and everything else, but I have lost no sleep yet over the Communistic level, or over the Catholic threat, or over anything else. I've lost no sleep yet. I might some day because I might think and fear someday, forgetting my God, but so far I haven't because I believe that He that is in us is greater than he that is in the world, and I believe that God will deliver, will establish, will confirm, but that an essential ingredient is that is my day by day and heart attitude trust in the Son of God. <sup>only</sup> to our understanding of the Lord's coming. We believe in the soon coming of Christ at Faith Seminary as I'm sure most of us do, if not all of you, in the churches you attend. We believe that His coming is imminent, possibly any moment and we remember the language of John, every man that has this hope then impurifieth himself, even as he is pure. So, that while we work now, we see the prophecies of the great things that are in store for us by God's grace, and we are not encouraged to loaf or to lay down on the job, we're encouraged to work all the harder. So in the situation in which Zechariah is, here's a tremendous job to be done. There are not many people to do it. There are a lot of problems, but in the light of the future blessing and deliverance which God has for His people, He challenges them to work and to do the will of God. And so would I from God's Word challenge your heart and mine today, that in the light of the kind of a God we have, and all these He has
