

D. Some practical points (maybe)

1. "It is not worthy..."
2. "God meant it"
3. "The things that have happened.."
4. And there are a bunch of promises

E. Conclusion:

I am not a pollyanna type with large rose-colored glasses. It is just important to note that the accomplishment of Divine purposes has never been a cakewalk. The greatest of God's men have struggled but have known the peace and strength of God through it. We know enough about the future to give us a big push in the present.
