- b. The Order of the Days: Annual worship gatherings

Passover	15-22 Nisan	Lev. 23:5-8 (Num. 28:16-25)
Pentecost	6 Siwan	Lev. 23:10-14 (Dt. 16)
Tabernacles	15-22 Tishri	Lev. 23:33-44
Trumpets	1 Tishri	Lev. 23:23-25
Atonement	10 Tishri	Lev. 23:26-32 (Lev. 16)

- c. The Order of the Days: periodic gatherings

Sabbath	Lev. 23:1-3
New Moon	Num. 10:10
Sabbath Year	Lev. 25:1-7
Jubilee Year	Lev. 25:8-18

The Jews would later add other holidays such as Purim and the feast of Lights (Hanukkah). And in that these were accepted in the Lord's day it is seen that the obligated occasions were not the only ones allowed. But one had to be careful not to encumber the calendar (Zech. 7-8) with days whose meaning could be doubtful or debated. The Sabbaths and the New Moons were almost necessary, incidentally, for keeping up with the time of the year.
