g. The display of fealty 27 (Leviticus)

- (1) the character of our vows 27:1-13
- (2) the giving of our gifts...14-25
- (3) the dedication of our goods ...26-34

I apologize for the short shift given this chapter.... and I will probably expand on it a bit in connexion with our discussion. It has a very practical ring to it and the message is one that can be used in every church.

IV. Supplemental Studies to the Book of Leviticus

- A. The Redemption laws
- B. The Male/Female relationships
- C. The character of the Levitical law and its application today.
- D. Levitical reference in the New Testament

V. Conclusion to the course of study:

The challenge of Leviticus is to live a life that, being touched by God's grace, shows that touch in the other areas of life interest. The people of God are uniquely blessed,,particularly being a people set apart for Him. What is most becoming to the people of God is, therefore, the demonstration of the character of God in their daily lives.
