

CONTENTS

Foreword	1
I. What is Study	1
II. Factors Affecting Study	2
1. Personal	2
--state of health	3
--proper rest, fatigue	3
--diet	3
--environment	4
2. Academic	4
--reading skill	5
--memory methods	5
--helpful disciplines	5
--notes and records	6
III. Procedures in Study	6
--take only useful notes	7
--stay current in reading	8
--develop good study practices	8
--discipline your time	9
--allow a few breaks	10
--determine a study place	10
--amass the essentials	11
--keeping the tools	11
--avoid distractions	12
--establish useful routines	12
--review continuously	12
--rewrite, organize notes	13
--devise questions	14
--identify obscure items	14
--establish recall methods	14
--teach someone else	15
IV. Helps in areas of study	15
--when you listen to a lecture	15
--when you read a book	16
--when you prepare a paper	17
--when you are doing an assignment	17
--when you take a test	18
--when work is returned	19
--when you make a presentation	19
V. Conclusion	19
Appendices	20-24