

- 201 d. Memorize Psalms 23 and 19. Complete by 29 November 1994. Certainly we will ask you to recite them, write them, maybe even sing them.

2. Week by week assignments. These are developed from your text, Jensen: Psalms: Bible Self-Study Guide. The whole semester's work is here..please keep up to date with it and we will all breathe with more ease.

19
SEPTEMBER 20....Read pages 4-16 carefully and note the following:

- Read the introduction and note especially figure 4 on page 6
- Note carefully "E. Style" page 9. I will elaborate at some length.
- Note the chart on page 10, observe carefully the worship line.
- Page 11, "B. Superscriptions". TVT does not agree with this paragraph and will offer some friendly suggestions otherwise.
- Page 11, "C. Types"...every author or teacher will have a list that is somewhat different but...
- Page 14, Note particularly the paragraph "second..".
- Page 15, see note 4.

And just for fun, you can close on the little quiz of pages 15-16 just for fun.

25
SEPTEMBER 27...nothing special but don't waste your time.

7
OCTOBER 4 This assignment comes in three parts. Begin by reading Jensen, Lesson I, pp 17-30.

- I. Read carefully the notes on Psalm 1.
Note the author's chart on page 19 and outline, p. 20. Remember that