

A. The Lord's Person

The Psalms tell us more about God personally than does most of the rest of the Bible. It is this Divine-human interaction that enriches the Psalter and renders it so meaningful to us. With regard to the formal doctrine of God we discover the following in the Psalms:

1. God revealed in His Name and titles

2. God shown in His attributes

3. God attested in personal relationships

B. The Lord's Rule

1. His Sovereign nature..Psalm 138, et al

2. His Peace and Anger..Psalm 103, etc.

3. His Divine Intention

4. His designated authority
 - then

 - now

 - tomorrow

C. The Lord's Work