4. What do we mean when we say something is a "speech figure"?

5. What are the two classes of Messianic Psalms and how do we tell the difference?

6. In your own words, of course, what is the principle point in a psalm that mostly discusses history?

7. Psalm 27 says... "The Lord is my light and my salvation, The Lord is the strength of my life." What sort of parallelism is that and why do you identify it as you have?

8. Why do we say the imprecatory psalms do not violate the spirit of Jesus' teaching in the New Testament?
