

Some questions to answer:

1. Note the assertions of 1:9-11. Is the expression literal or figurative? Is it exhaustive or limited? What is its point in this chapter?

2. Note the words of 1:15. Is this a testimony of despair? Or does it reflect a basic doctrine of Scripture? If so, what doctrine. Explain your answer.

3. Why, after 1:17, does the writer want to know "madness" and folly?"

4. 2:12...Who is the man that comes after the King?

Explain the form of the last verb in this verse.
