

4. Complications:

- a. Esau's wife
- b. Family Chicanery
- c. Sibling relationships
- d. Both parents lose out
- e. Both children suffer in their own degree.

5. Summarizing the negative account where the order of God was not honored:

- a. God was not trusted
- b. Partners were not trusted
- c. Sibling rivalry furthered by parental interference
- d. Mother's hope is lost
- e. Father's state confused
- f. Children have learned the wrong lesson(s).

E. Summary and Conclusion:

The home that accepts the order of God both honors Him and its own destiny. Practical trust and obedience....these enforce the answers. But there are a lot of questions....

What if one partner wants to honor the order and the other does not?

What is a person just lives alone?

How long is the command to honor to be in effect?

How are family offenses to be resolved?

And...well there are a lot more and if you wish to ask about any or to add to this list....we will take some time to do it. But remember this is not a clinic so keep the questions general rather than personal.