

Pinebrook . . . . Senior Saint Retreat Sept 23-25, 2008

life perspectives as supplied by some "sermons" in the Bible as interpreted by T. Taylor (a senior himself!) to the end that we may better "Carry the Torch"

I. A very few introductory Notes

A. Our Purpose: → to help us use more fully for the Lord who has given them to us.

B. Our Procedure: to study some senior lives in the Bible and note positive and negative aspects.

C. Our Proposition: understanding both trials and triumphs in life enable us to concentrate on the reality of living for the Lord.

D. Our Text: 2 Cor 12: 9-10

II Case Studies on a few Senior Saints

A. Jacob

1. A very quick review of his life... the Genesis account

2. An assessment of his life ~~when~~ in his Genesis 47: 9 - how much this may have changed in the next 17 years we do not know. At the time of this occurrence he is 130 years old
