

Just a few notes on these notes:

They are prepared, not as a manuscript, but as an accompaniment to TVT in the oral discussions. Consequently our Scriptures are not fully cited and fully applied. That would call for a book and these are simply scattered notes.

They are quickly typed and printed...so the reader must be prepared for almost any sort of structural surprise. Since they are not manuscript, many ideas are not carried out to the full.

The four subjects treated as disciplines used by the Lord in molding our service are:

Adversity

Personal Limitations

Testings

Convictions

Of the many that could have been taken for the study, these are taken in the feeling that they are needful and are often the least understood.
