

These notes are prepared by TVT to accompany his talks on the subject. They are not fully written out and they are hardly manuscript material. Due to the haste of preparation (and a lot of other weak excuses) proof-reading is just ignored and only the most flagrant spelling or typing mistakes are corrected. So you may see almost anything in the page. You will discover that I have had a lot of trouble with "Predictive" and about half the time it has come of "predicitive". I know better....but the time does not allow a journal work. Generally I have capitalized the pronouns for deity only when I am emphasizing the Divine role with greater force.
