

- d. literal
- e. letteral

3. Particular translations:

- a. the need
- b. the Septuagint
- c. the Vulgate
- d. Others....
- e. The service of translation

f. But when you have a translation into any language why is there a continuing need for more and more translations? Why can't we have a good one and get it over with?

F. The Spread of Christianity and the Effectiveness of the Word

- 1. The evangelistic outreach of the apostolic church
- 2. What is needed for the establishment of churches and the promotion of a continued outreach.
- 3. The relevance of the Word of God and the building of the church...the accomplishment of its mission.

III. Prereformation English Bible translation and texts

A. The civilization of the British isles at the time of the early church:

- 1. The native residents
- 2. The indigenous religion...or what little we know...
- 3. The coming of the Saxons

B. Early Christianity in England:

- 1. The early Celtic work