Mr. Taylor: When this class ended yesterday, I was looking down at Page 3, Page 2 rather, I didn't number the charts that I gave at the bottom of Page 2. I will make a few notes about that in a couple of minutes, but in the meantime, (I print things in great quantity). ~~Don't~~ Don't be disturbed by that. If you don't use them once, you use them later. ~~_____~~ If nothing else, use them for scratch paper! But under the system of passing things out that I mentioned yesterday. I have a fewer of you to pay, but here is page 3. Under the system of yesterday this is Page 3. We change colors often in my notes because that breaks up the monotony of one color. Page 3. The color sometimes matches the individuals too. You have to be very careful with it. I am very _____ in my concepts. Well, that is 3 and this is 4.

(Student talks in background, apparently asks question. Mr. Taylor responds but not clearly.)

Mr. Taylor: Sometimes. You know they are really hard exams.

Student: They are

Mr. Taylor: When a professor says: It is an open book exam -- Of course, all of my Hebrew tests are open book exams. It just happens to be open Hebrew Bible.

Student: I need another set. I gave mine to the gentleman in back.

~~Myxx~~

Mr. Taylor: I'm sorry. Okay. Good.

I May need a couple of sets myself.

Mr. Taylor: We ^{were} ~~are~~ talking about the matter of unfulfilled predictions, and I had gone through the chart in Egypt, which is kind of an English Bible Study. Most of us can profit by that because we read that better than most other things. So we have worked through that particular step, and I had pointed out down at the bottom of page 2 the three areas in which the unfulfilled prophecies regarding Egypt ~~and~~ in particular line. I mentioned that based on the pattern of Ezekiel 30 you may see a clue that indicates the vast time period between various sections
