

A series of eleven practical articles that will build your confidence in the Bible, and help you answer problem questions people ask about it.

1

About the author.

Thomas V. Taylor is definitely one of the most colorful faculty members at Biblical Seminary. Whether entertaining folks with a harmonica rendering of "The Skater's Waltz," pointing out the plentiful humor in everyday events, or opening up the Scriptures in a carefully thought-out study, he is a memorable and refreshing personality.

Mr. Taylor is a graduate of Bryan College, Dayton, Tennessee; and of Faith Seminary, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He also was a member of the founding faculty of Biblical Seminary.

In addition to his being a truly fine Church History professor and Old Testament scholar, he has become an extremely popular speaker for Bible Conferences and special meetings all over the eastern half of the United States.