

About the seminary.

Biblical Theological Seminary offers professional training for all Christian ministries, but especially for the pastoral ministry. It is the aim of this school to so combine the basics of biblical instruction in the original languages with systematic and practical theology, and a warm evangelistic and pastoral motivation, that graduates will know how to "rightly divide the Word of Truth" with a passion for souls and an eagerness to serve. Its faculty handle the Scriptures with complete confidence in their full authority and inerrancy. Students learn to approach God's Word with professional competence as well as devotional respect.

The entire program is designed to encourage vital spiritual living, genuine scholarship, evangelistic zeal, and effectiveness in Christian communication and service.
