

Chief Thinkers among the Scholastics

We will not discuss all of these...ever...although some of them will be mentioned in greater detail. This page is given for future reference and so you can know who they are. A few contributions are given.

Erigena (810-877)

Anselm (1030-1109)

- the ontological argument
- the vicarious atonement

Abelard (1079-1142)

- dialectical theology

Bernard of Clairvaux (1090-1153)

- monastic reform
- hymnology

Hugh of St. Victor (1095-1141)

Peter Lombard (1100-1160)

- the seven sacraments

Alexander of Hales (1170-1245)

Albertus Magnus (1200-1280)

Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274)

- the Summa

Bonaventura (1221-1274)

Duns Scotus (1265-1308)

William of Occam (1300-1350)

- Occam's razor