

g. Now, at this point I am going to give headings and fill in the material in the lectures...this is going to turn into a long course with no ending if I am not careful. So I will offer some remarks on each of the following although not a full history as you may understand.

(1) Lutheranism...we will reverse this one and talk about what it is today and how it got that way.

(2) Quakers