

b. The "Cult" Class

The cult will have a new center and a new authority for its operation in distinction from the sect which will have basically the same authority posture as the entire body of Christendom. Previously unrevealed "truth" is necessary for the cult and this is usually diffused by authoritative prophets. As with the sects we can only discuss some and remember: if it were not for liberty of conscience, we would not have any to discuss... just a few heretics to hunt out and burn.
