

3. Development of the American Pattern...

- a. European influence
 - England, 1689
 - France, 1790 ca
- b. 1786, the Virginian Bill of Rights....
Jefferson: a "Wall of Separation..."
- c. defining lines: the free-exercise of religion
 - test acts
 - tax acts
 - religious holidays
 - Sundays
- d. The impact of the Constituion
- e. Agony of the pattern:
 - moral values
 - absence of ethical ideology
 - scholastic issues

4. Present arguments over the establishment of religion

- a. arbitrary legislation
- b. the war acts
- c. Use of public funds for religious fringe events
- d. Released time
- e. And a host of lesser known related subjects. We can come right to the present with this.

5. Present dangers

- a. State encroachments
- b. Federal acts
- c. Roman thrusts
- d. Ecumenical movement

6. Conclusions (rather impulsive)

- a. Total dichotomy is not possible
- b. Law and custom must learn to coexist
- c. An increased tension cannot be avoided
- d. It will be helpful to keep the activities of citizens as citizens distinct from activities of citizens as churchmen.