History IA -16

General Chronology of the Early Church (Apostolic Age) period. Dates are rarely exact but in the ball park.

- 29-30...Pentecost, the beginning of the Christian church as a body politic

 44 The death of Herod. The conversion of Paul is before this...perhaps 36-38 as is the moving of the Gospel to the Gentiles in the days of Cornelius. See the New Testament Survey notes for more precise data.
- 52 Claudius expels the Jews from Rome
- 54 Beginning of Nero's rule
- 64 Burning of Rome: the Neronian persecution
- 67 Suggested dates for the martyrdom of Peter and Paul in Rome Jewish insurrection in Palestine
- 70 Titus destroys Jerusalem. Jews are forbidden to be there. Christians fled before the downfall and have lost whatever filial emotion they had with the Jews.
- 73 Fall of Masada, the Josephus era
- 79 Titus is made emperor
- Domitian rules Rome. Persecutions of a sporadic sort. It seems that exile was a favorite device and John was likely sent to Patmos as a Christian exile during the reign of Domitian.
- 91 Suggested date for the first letter of Clement, a bishop in Rome.
- 96 About this time...John writes Revelation, perhaps his Gospel, maybe even the letters.
- 98 Trajan rules Rome
- 99 Supposed death of John..the only Apostle to die a "natural" death if the traditions are right.
- 104 Pliny/Trajan correspondence regarding Christians and persecution
- 112 The Ignatian era
- 117 Rule of Hadrian
- 123 Suggested dates for the early apologies of Quadratus, Aristides
- 132 Bar Chochba revolt
- 135 End of Jewish war and revolt
- Approximate date for first version of Apostle's Creed
 Antonius Pius began rule in 138 and offered some shelter to Christians
- 150 Justin Martyr active...first Apology in 151
- 154 Martyrdom of Polycarp.

These are not given for memory but only to give a rough guide as to the progress of things. There are very few dates in history that you need to know but there is a progression of facts that is important and that progression is broadly indicated in chronological tables.
