History IA 91

Views of the church in essential character...there are plenty of variations.

Apostolic

Ecclesiastical (Catholic and to a large extent Orthodox)

Where the Bishop in apostolic
succession
oversees the Christian community.
The church is in the Bishops
collectively for the whole, individually
in any given community.

You can get a feeling for what makes the church in both circles and probably nother is really this simple anyhow.