

1. The temperance fight (the Volstead Act)
2. Suffrage
3. Community mission
4. Political (moral) areas:
 - a. education
 - b. abortion
 - c. social causes

It is true that some churches limit the interdenominationalist activity on lines of theological delineation but there are almost none who do not somehow involve themselves in some form of interdenominationalism...the tasks before us are just too great for individual groups to do the credible jobs that are needed.

D. Development of Para-Church agencies:

1. By definition:
2. Variety:
 - a. Youth ministry
 - b. Service ministry (finance)
 - c. Printing (publishing)
 - d. Conference
 - e. Mission
 - f. Special and technical ministry

What it boils down to is that there is hardly anything needed in the church for which there has not been an agency developed with appropriate paper work, organization, fund support, etc. Some regard them with watchful eyes, some repute, but they are here and their efforts cannot be minimized

E. The Charismatic movement:

It needs more space and time than we can give it at the present so just a quick overview is about all we can get it.

- a. Historic background:
