

4. Periodization

There are almost as many schemes of periods as there are teachers so I will use the same period breakdown that Dr. Franke has been using. It looks like this:

Ante-Nicene Christianity: Pentecost to 325
Nicene and Post Nicene Christianity 325-800
Early and "High" Mediaeval Christianity
800-1300
Late Mediaeval Christianity 1300-1500

Many of my discussions will bridge these periods but I will try to keep you abreast of where we are at any given time.

5. And a word about what you need to know...

So....
