

Section II Some significant people

Following are twenty names of persons who have made significant contributions in the field of our work. As in the previous section, select the person who meets the requirements of the statement and place the identifying letter in the proper place on the answer sheet. I have given the first one for an example. And remember that anyone may be used more than once, some may not be used at all.

1. Scholastic foe of the immaculate conception
2. Supposedly received the Donation of Constantine
3. Rector of the University of Prague
4. Opponent of Henry IV at Canossa
5. Reformer on the Cluniac movement in the Benedictines
6. Foe of icons
7. Promoter of missions from Iona monastery
8. Author of the Summa Theologica
9. Initiator of persecution in the time of Cyprian
10. Finalized transubstantiation as the communion view of the church.
11. Promoter of the Brethren of the Common Life
12. Close follower of Augustine in grace and sovereignty
13. Inventor of the famous philosophic razor
14. Developer of cenobite monastic ideal
15. Early Christian martyr
16. Convened the fourth Lateran council
17. Good example of a nominalist philosopher
18. Promoter of Islamic missions
19. Missionary to the Bulgars
20. Although not a student of Wycliffe, a follower of Wycliffian ideals and principles.

And you can think of a lot more famous people whose contributions may have been greater or equal to these but there is little rationale for the selection of names on a test save to have the student think about people and organize their contributions and ideals in an informative way.
