

8. We have not asked much about the Crusades but the only one that accomplished much was the first and it was called, in the west, by (A) Gregory I (B) Urban II (C) Innocent III (D) Boniface VIII
9. There are always some insidious affairs lurking in the activities of people, even in the church. One of the great missionary works was achieved by Ulfilus, who, unfortunately (A) was a monarchian (B) followed Manicheanism (C) was a montanist (D) was an Arian
10. But of the success of Patrick's mission work there can be no doubt and in the opinion of some modern scholars the greater influence is seen in that the Irish monastics (A) saved Europe from total loss in the Dark ages (B) influenced missionary moves to the new world (C) converted the Scandinavians (D) encouraged missions in Asia.
11. The Majorcan missionary who labored so much for the Islamic field, especially in Tunis, was (A) St. Francis (B) Lull (C) St. Joan (D) Dominic
12. So there are many things of interest in history but we do not want it to (A) teach doctrine (B) give good lessons and examples (C) encourage us as to how the Lord works (D) tell us what is right and wrong in practices of polity and expediency.
13. But we can profit from its discussions and if we are familiar with the council of Constantinople we will know what to say when someone says..(A) Jesus was not God (B) Jesus did not die for our sins (C) Jesus was not at all human like we are (D) Jesus never went to school. (The First Council of Constantinople(
14. And we will learn that too that, as the Scripture says, a soft answer turns away wrath..a good example being the dealing of Irenaeus with (A) the Gnostics (B) The Bishop of Rome (C) the persecutors of the church (D) sthe Neo-Platonists.
15. Well, I am tired of writing questions and in my realistic approach where the idea is the big thing...I will just give you this last one free. Everyone has it right!

And there are many more things, as I have said before, but if you can put some of this stuff together, I am satisfied that the time has been well spent and worth while. Have a good holiday and return in a triumphal mood for the next semester.