

- d. The Meaning of Forgiveness 18:1-35
- e. Denunciation of hypocrites 23
- f. Predictions of the future 24
- g. The Great Commission 28:18-20

4. The Structure of Matthew as developed in the Companion Bible. An illustration of the thoroughness of the Biblical narrative.

- 1:1-2:23.....Pre-Ministerial Material
- 3:1-4.....The Forerunner
- 3:5-17.....The Baptism (water)
- 4:1-11.....Temptation (wilderness)
- 4:12-7:29.....Kingdom (proclaimed)
- 8:1-16:20.....King (proclaimed)
- 16:21-20:34.....King (rejected)
- 21:1-26:35.....Kingdom (rejected)
- 26:36-46.....Agony (garden)
- 26:47-28:14.....Baptism (suffering and death)
- 28:16-18.....The followers (succession)
- 28:19-20.....Post-Ministerial material

This sort of study arrangement is known as "introversion" in which the ideas of the book repeat themselves in reverse order after coming to the apex of the idea at a given point. It displays a remarkable symmetry of thought and, while one must be careful not to read into the Scripture, offers a unique understanding to the concepts of the whole. I like it...but that does not mean you need to like it.