

Vos, Howard. BIBLICAL ARCHAEOLOGY. Up to date in report and explanation of facts.

--Archaeological magazines:

- Bible and Spade
- Biblical Archaeological Review
- Biblical Archaeologist

Data on these may be secured in the Biblical Library
See also Mazar, Amihai: ARCHAEOLOGY OF THE LAND OF
THE BIBLE...very comprehensive work in the Anchor
Bible series, 1991.

4. General Works

Keller, Werner. THE BIBLE AS HISTORY

Miller, H.L. GENERAL BIBLICAL INTRODUCTION

Turner, THE GEOGRAPHY OF PALESTINE

III. THE TEXT OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

These next sections of this course are almost like courses in themselves...therefore each has a table of contents at the heading to give one an idea of what is in it. These tables of content will also prove helpful in study and review.

Contents of the Text Section

- A. Introductory comment--24
- B. Comparative notes on the Hebrew and Greek texts--25-26
  - 1. Material available--25
  - 2. Variety of versions--25
  - 3. Uniformity of the Printed text--26
  - 4. Text families--26
  - 5. Linguistic notes--26
- C. Languages of the Old Testament 27-31
  - 1. Hebrew--27
  - 2. Aramaic--30
- D. Text history--31-51
  - 1. Ancient Materials--31
  - 2. The Masoretic text--32