2. 1 a. | = read (Kethiv)

וַיִּתְאַנַּח = and he has grieved

פ = compare (Kethiv)
Septuagint: καὶ στένοντες } ℵ B 71.
Syriac } XLV1

כתיב = ב (Kethiv)
וַיִּתְאַנַּח = participle
Vulgate = conversus est

The text says: "You were angry with me, your anger will turn."
The 1st suggested reading is... "You were angry with me and your anger will turn..."
The 2nd suggested reading... "You were angry and your anger is turned (past)"
The heart of the issue is the turning of God's anger and wrath.

: 1 b. Septuagint "καὶ ἔπεσεν and your head mercy (ἔλεος) came"
(Syriac and Vulgate agree)

I read וַתָּנַח ... change waw of וַיִּתְאַנַּח to waw consecutive and read "and you have comforted me"

http://www.taylorlib.ibri.org/Taylor-Writings/OldTestament/1991-OT-Intro/README.htm