

d. Events

- (1) Establishment of the priesthood
- (2) Judgment on Nadab and Abihu
- (3) Demonstration of the severity of the law.

e. Particular features:

- (1) The institution of the sacrificial system and the five major sacrifices.
- (2) The laws of cleanliness
- (3) The instruction for the Day of Atonement and the holy days throughout the year.
- (4) The morality codes
- (5) The Redemption laws
- (6) The challenge of holiness...living for the Lord in all the areas of life.

f. Leviticus is a striking and practical book that stresses the relationship of the worshiper and His God. It emphasizes that when one is right with God one will be right with others as also.

4. Numbers

a. Theme: God leads through the wilderness

b. Outline:

- I. The Camp organized 1-10
- II. The Move to Canaan 11-36
(and many subpoints!)

c. Author: Moses

d. The Events:

- (1) Following the cloud and the fire
- (2) The land...refusal to enter and the determined judgment of God
- (3) Rebellion of Korah, et al