

S630
iz # 6

Student Name _____

Score _____

Multiple Choice (again)!

A number of accounts in the Pentateuch seem to be repeated. The most logical explanation for this is:

- A. The redaction of multiple documents
  - B. The inclusion of non-Hebraic materials
  - C. The nature of Hebrew Style
  - D. The necessity of correcting previously incomplete records.
-

According to the destructive higher criticism, the idea of monotheism came with:

- A. The Patriarch Age
  - B. The Prophetic Period
  - C. The Preprophetic Period
  - D. The Priestly Period
-

The science of archaeology has shown us that:

- A. Many of the items described in the Pentateuch are much older than the dates allowed by critics for the age of Pentateuchal documents.
  - B. A redaction of documents to produce a finished product was common in ancient times.
  - C. The biblical accounts need correction in many details of ancient times.
  - D. Source criticism is the only way to adequately explain internal contradictions in the Pentateuch.
-

Israel accomplished two things of national significance at Gilgal. One was the renewing of circumcision and the other was:

- A. the reading of the law
  - B. the renewing of the covenant of Sinai
  - C. the regrouping for the second attack on Ai
  - D. the erection of a memorial monument.
-

The account of Joshua's "long day" is found in:

- A. Joshua 5
  - B. Deuteronomy 34
  - C. Joshua 10
  - D. Joshua 9
-