

Group IV

Pagan worship among the people of God

The Worship System of Jeroboam I ...Samyol Lee
Baal worship in Israel...Shiow Jen Lim
Apostate worship in Ezekiel's time...Suk Hyun Park

Group V

Great Occasions in Old Testament Worship

The Passover in the Old Testament...Suk Bae Son
The Feast of Tabernacles in the Old Testament..Colin Wong

I hope you can see that these are arranged in a sequence of thoughts and ideas. We may or may not have a reasonable amount of time to discuss them but you can work through them for the semester, quarter, or whatever it is. When they are submitted each student is to submit them in sufficient quantities so that everyone in the class may have a copy of every paper...so do them carefully and neatly and they will be a lasting file of useful materials on this subject.

That is all there is to the assignments...Class is not meeting on March 3 so you can proceed with the work unimpeded.

2. Grading:

It is always hard but the grades are broken down in the nature of thirds:

1/3...your quarter paper
1/3...the weekly assignments and discussion
1/3...a final examination.

There is no mid-quarter exam and remember there is no class on April 15...it is the Missions Conference at Biblical.

3. A Note on my "syllabus"

I do not have a formal syllabus for the course but I do have some guided or extended notes. The course is essentially a "Bible course" and our research is very much in the Bible itself. I will probably issue the pages week by week so if you miss a class be sure to pick up the pages from me that may have been given out. These are "skeletal" pages which means they only serve to guide our thinking, not to finalize it. And be careful about my typing mistakes..I work fast..that is my excuse..and I do not proof read..that is a fact.

At any rate, I appreciate your taking the course and hope we will all profit together in our individual and corporate worship experiences.
