- (3) succession in later generations after the exodus

c. Character:

Although many of the priests did not live up to the character expected of them, the character and personality requirements were still in place. We will discuss it for a bit and think about what it all means...

See. Hebrew 21:16-21, Mal. 2

d. Laws and regulations:

God had high expectations for all of His people but those who were of the priestly order had standards that exceeded the common citizen. While all persons were to be sensitive to the law of God, the burden placed on the priesthood in this area was enormous. We will sketch a few...

See. Numbers 21:55.
