

this passage or segment, and by seeing it we learn to trust Him. Then, trusting in His strength, we are able to give ourselves to the work. This learning is accomplished by believing what God has said and seeing what God has done.

II. Outline Points of the Message:

- A. Take hold of the Word of God Zc. 1:6
- B. See how God has fulfilled His promises Zc 1:17
- C. Visualize what God wants to do Zc 1:17
- D. Remember God's historic action Zc 1:21 (context)
- E. Rejoice in the promised future Zc 2:1-13

III. Conclusion: I know that learning to trust is a progressive affair and may go slowly. Mueller's thought was that he learned to trust God for a penny and then in time could trust him with pounds (English money!) God did not ask them to build the temple magically or in five days. He simply wanted them to start and trust Him for each day and the Divine assurance was that they could complete the job and He would be honored thereby.

MESSAGE # 4: ENJOY THE REALITIES OF GRACE

Biblical Passages: Zechariah 3

I. Synopsis of the Message

Without an understanding of this truth, we never have the sort of security that is necessary for yieldedness to the Lord's will. In this troubled age of years ago, there were those who wondered if they were really accepted of God. When they came to know the reality of this acceptance, then they were able to more fully participate in the work God had given. Our presentation may be a little dull but this is a great lesson and absolutely essential to those who would be obedient to His will. The presented is that of Joshua the high priest standing before God in an imperfect state and being accused by the enemy (Satan) as not being right in God's sight. It was just how many of the people felt about themselves and that sort of feeling is still with us in abundance.
