

C. But God's program will succeed: He will settle His people and live comfortably with them. 13:9

III. Conclusion: In every age there are prophets true and false...the tests for them are summarized in Deuteronomy 13 and 18. It is important not to be swayed by prophetic claims but by the actuality of a demonstration that God has spoken. All those misleading voices of Israel's past will be silenced one day and God will establish His people and fulfill the concepts of the covenant.

MESSAGE # 11: THE REWARD OF GRACE

Biblical Passages: Zechariah 14

I. Synopsis of the Message:

This is another in the series of predictive prophetic chapters that is very important in the study of eschatology but used here to show how God by grace will show Himself to His people. To those who respond to Him grace offers a gentle but meaningful reward. It is beautiful to see what the Lord will do for the nation in a coming day ---to think on what He will do for the church at some imminent moment and to reflect on what He has already done for us and what He promises to do as well.

II. Outline Points of the Message:

A. He will arrange the circumstances (14:2) even though no one seems aware of it.

B. He will arrange for safety and deliverance (14:4 ff)

C. He will establish His kingship (14:9 ff)

D. He will bring order to the universe (14:12 ff)

III. Conclusion: What a day it will be! And in the light of what God will do His people should now be given to His will and therefore be exercised for His truth. While the fulfillment of this great passage is ahead of us, the reality of it is with us every day to challenge love, obedience, and expedient doing of the work of God.
