

time have no idea. Perhaps you can fill them in, if you wish, in retrospect. So this ends the summarizing of these years of conference and I have now to add a few items of appendix quality and then.....

* * * * *

APPENDIX #1...MISSING CONFERENCE SERIES

Although there may be more (the weakness of the intellect is legendary in my family) I have the recorded nature of three series for which I do not have my conference notes:

1. A series entitled THE LORD'S RELATIONSHIPS in which I tried to discuss his relationships with the Father, the Holy Spirit, His disciples, the religious organization of His time, and the world about Him. You can almost guess at the purpose of these talks but I do not have the specifics.
2. a second series was called THE EMOTIONAL LIFE OF THE LORD. I do not repeat messages very often but I did reuse this series at Emmaus (Oak Park) and Guelph (Toronto) and apparently in revising or rethinking I lost the original notes and a lot of the materials in the same folder with them. I concentrated on the emotions of love, anger, sympathy, hate (disdain) and stressed that the Lord ruled the emotions, they did not rule Him. It was a series I enjoyed but it is lost and I am not now going to try to recreate it.
3. CHRISTIAN OCCUPATIONS was a series in which I surveyed a good bit of Colossians, et al, and talked about the things that should occupy us as believers. Not sure what happened to this work but maybe when my heirs are cleaning out my files, if the Lord does not end these things first, some of these things will show up.

APPENDIX # 2: FOURTH OF JULY MESSAGES.....

Editor's Note: I moved into this area after a conference at Ben Lidden when I shared the ministry with Stan Ford. He had the message on the morning of July 4th and we had a couple of patriotic songs, etc. After the service he said to me