

Oakwood #2 The God of All Grace

2 Corinthians 12:1-10

I. Introduction

A. Greeting

B. Review (1 Peter 5, The God of All Grace is able is able to bless us in the trials of life

C. Paul, in 2 Corinthians 12 → a. problem, his prayer, the answer

D. The God of All Grace is enough to sustain us in disappointment and loss

II. Discussion

A. The great trials: keeps us humble vs. 7
- we cannot be carnal
- we can pray and ask for deliverance

B. The Lord allows trials to strengthen and mature vs. 9
- we know Him better
- we show His love in clearer perspective

C. We should rejoice in our knowledge of Him
- Paul "take pleasure"
- when we are weak, then are we strong

III Conclusion: His grace is sufficient for us. His voluntary help, etc., is right to encourage us.
Don't retreat on the Lord - He will guide you with.