

2. The Burden of the Oppressed: It is a sign that releases from tension and "defeatism" chapter 12...some students continue it to 13:6)
The theme is deliverance...for Jerusalem and for its people. The Providence of God is the key factor and it both protects and motivates./

III. Conclusion:

There is nothing to fear in being obedient to the voice of the Lord. Dependence on Him, however, is not simply passive but very active. Believe and enjoy the blessings and...get on with the Work!
