

c. The conflict:

Headed by Cyril of Alexandria..a big debate in which the superiority of sees was not a small part of the issue.

d. The meeting:

Chalcedon
--At ~~Chalcedon~~ the opinions of Celestine of Rome seemed to Galvanize the ideas of Nestorius. Several compromises were rejected and it was decided that Mary could indeed be called the mother of God in the child born of her was God incarnate.

e. Outcome:

No positive creed was established and the door was open for further discussion and the next debate.

And we will worry about that next week.
